

"I COULD NOT ASK TO FEEL BETTER."

Had Terrible Nervous Chills and Could Hardly Digest A Thing Before Taking Tanlac.

"I just couldn't ask to feel better than I do now since I've taken Tanlac," said Miss Oona Yates, a popular factorywoman from the Martin Broom Factory, living at 426 East Jacob St. Louisville, Ky.

"I just hate to think of the awful condition I was in only a few weeks ago with my stomach badly out of order and my nerves almost completely broken down. I had a poor appetite and even the light food I did eat disagreed with me and caused me awful suffering afterwards. I often had terrible nervous chills and my sleep was broken and restless. Every morning I felt so weak and worn out, hardly had strength enough to go to my work.

"My uncle had been taking anlac and was so well pleased with it he advised me to try it. I have taken only three bottles but I have improved so wonderfully that I am already feeling like a different person altogether. My appetite is just fine and I am eating anything and everything. I please without suffering afterwards at all. My nerves are as steady and calm as can be and I have not had a nervous chill since I first started taking Tanlac. I have a splendid color and I am enjoying perfect rest and sleep every night. My work is now a real pleasure because I am feeling strong and healthy and full of life and energy."

Tanlac is sold in Tazewell by John E. Jackson, in Graham by Graham Pharmacy; in Pochontas by Citizens Drug Co.; in Richlands by Richlands Pharmacy; and at Bowling, Tazewell R. F. D., by J. S. Puckett.

UNUSUAL CONDITION

Texas Lady Suffered With Pulling and Aching Pains in Her Back, Which Cardui Relieved.

Houston, Texas.—Mrs. C. D. Cook, of 1912 Whitty Street, this city, recently said: "About four months after my marriage, I... began suffering much pain, and knew that my condition was unusual, but couldn't just decide what was wrong. I had to go to bed. . . .

"All across my back and hips were pains, pulling and aching until I could hardly sit up. I stayed in bed a few days. My husband had heard of Cardui... so I told him he might get it.

"After I had taken Cardui a few days, I was up. I took five bottles and haven't been in bed since for this trouble, for if I have the least symptoms of this trouble I get Cardui and take it in time.

"I have a number of friends who have used Cardui, and they recommend it very highly."

The experience of this Texas lady is similar to that related by thousands of other women.

Cardui is purely vegetable, and mild and gentle in its action. Cardui may be the very medicine you need if suffering with womanly troubles.

Take Cardui.

FRONT PORCH CAMPAIGNS.

(Roanoke Times.)

Gov. Cox says that he is "too modest" to state the real reason why Senator Harding has decided to abandon the front porch in favor of a more vigorous style of campaigning during the last six weeks before the election. But Senator Harding is by no means the only American who will withdraw from the front porch as September draws to a close. Whereas the Senator is going out on the rear platform to continue his campaign, thousands of couples throughout the land will move from the front porch to the parlor where, with the shades snugly pulled down against prying eyes, the campaign will be resumed and pressed vigorously throughout the winter months until unconditional surrender results. And as the parlor campaign succeeds the front porch style, the gas and electric bills will amount in consequence, furnishing a grim aspect of reality to the old jest about the "high cost of living." Senator Harding will learn what the country thinks about his front porch campaign very early in November. The outcome of the other variety of front porch campaign will not be manifest in many instances, until June wedding bells ring out. Give Dan Cupid a summer moon and a secluded swing or hammock on a front porch, and he asks no other accessories. He can be relied on to turn the trick every time under such circumstances.

SOLOMON HAD SOME CAR.

Another advantage Solomon had over the other young fellows of his day was wealth. When he built that chariot he "made the pillars of silver the bottom was of gold, the covering of purple, and paved with love for the daughters of Jerusalem. That would catch most any girl for a Sunday evening ride.

McADOO PUT ON NOTICE.

(Roanoke Times.)

In the course of a statement announcing that President Wilson would shortly enter actively into the campaign in behalf of Cox and Roosevelt, Senator Harrison, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the Democratic National Committee, said "We also expect William G. McAdoo to speak in New York and every other State in the Union which it is possible for him to reach between now and Election Day."

Mr. McAdoo has promised to do everything within his power to aid the ticket and no doubt he will be as good as his word. Senator Harrison's statement is susceptible to the construction that unless Mr. Mc-Adoo comes to the aid of Gov. Cox and renders every assistance within his power, in the event of defeat the Cox forces will remember his attitude and do everything they can to balk McAdoo's future political success. We do not know that Senator Harrison meant it just that way. But we say that his words are open to such construction.

Mr. McAdoo's political career was not necessarily brought to a close by his defeat for the nomination at the San Francisco Convention. Much may happen in the next four years to render him entirely out of the question as a Presidential possibility in 1924, but it is easily possible that, if Gov. Cox fails of election in November, McAdoo will be the logical choice of the Democratic party to make the race four years hence. There is a faction in the party that looks upon McAdoo as the strongest Democrat, barring Wilson, of his day. This faction, in the event that the Republicans win this year, will be heard from in 1924. Unless McAdoo bestirs himself actively in behalf of Cox, the adherents of the Governor will do what they can to block his road to the nomination in the future. That, at least, is one interpretation that can be placed upon Senator Harrison's words.
